Example: Say, “The rule is– no climbing on the table.”

Example: Every time your child runs in church, have him hold your hand and walk with you.

Example: If you don’t want your child to swear, don’t swear.

Example: Your child has been very whiny lately. You decide to stop trying to get the housework done and spend time going for a walk with your child and talking about all the birds and flowers you see.

Example: Let your child know that if she throws sand at the playground that she will have to leave the playground.

Example: In your family bedtime is at 8:00PM and you read to your children every night before they go to bed.
